

African Union, African Regional Bodies

Resolution on peace and security; women and children in armed conflicts

Legislation as at 1 October 2004

There may have been updates since this file was created.

PDF created on 4 October 2024 at 09:53.

View online

About this collection

The legislation in this collection has been reproduced as it was originally printed in the Government Gazette, with improved formatting and with minor typographical errors corrected. All amendments have been applied directly to the text and annotated. A scan of the original gazette of each piece of legislation (including amendments) is available for reference.

www.laws.africa
info@laws.africa

FRBR URI: /akn/aa-au/statement/resolution/pap/2004/1-2-3/eng@2004-10-01

There is no copyright on the legislative content of this document.

This PDF copy is licensed under a Creative Commons Attribution 4.0 License (CC BY 4.0). Share widely and freely.

Resolution on peace and security; women and children in armed conflicts

Contents

Paragraph 1. 1

Paragraph 2. 1

Paragraph 3. 1

Paragraph 4. 1

Paragraph 5. 1

African Union

Resolution on peace and security; women and children in armed conflicts

Published on 1 October 2004

Commenced

[This is the version of this document from 1 October 2004.]

We, representatives of the African people meeting under the banner of the Pan-African Parliament during the Second Session held in South Africa on the 17th of September to the 30th of September 2004:

1. NOTE the challenges faced by Africa in the area of Peace and Security and how these relate to and negatively affect Africa's potential socio-economic development;
2. FURTHER NOTE the study conducted by Mrs Graca Machel in her capacity as Expert of the Secretary-General of the United Nations, entitled "Impact of Armed Conflict on Children", in which it is recommended that children in armed conflict should be treated as a distinct and priority concern;
3. RECALL Africa's past commitments in global and continental legal instruments, including Resolution 1314 on Children and Armed Conflict as well as UN Security Council Resolution 1325, which highlights the need to pay special attention to the issue of Women, War and Peace. The report of a study done as a follow up to this resolution highlights the need to see women not only as victims of wars. Women are also survivors, peacemakers and leaders during the phase of reconstructing their societies;
4. RESOLVE that the relevant committees of the Pan-African Parliament (.e. Committee on Cooperation, International Relations and Conflict Resolution; Committee on Gender, Family, Youth and People with Disability; Committee on Justice and Human Rights) be mandated to study the recommendations of the Report by UNIFEM, entitled Women, War and Peace: The Independent Experts' Assessment on the Impact of Armed Conflict on Women and Women's Role in Peace-building, with the view to monitor and ensure follow-up work in Africa;
5. FURTHER RESOLVE that the relevant Committees report to the House by not later than the Third Ordinary Session of the Pan-African Parliament in 2005 on the recommendations to be made to the appropriate structures of the African Union.