[This is the version of this document from 20 April 2010.]

The Pan-African Parliament, as the parliamentary organ of the African Union whose objective is to promote democratic values and Human Rights, deeply concerned by the current situation in Niger resolved to:

- Firmly condemn the coup d'état perpetrated by the military junta on the 18th February 2010;
- Take note of the statements made by the junta regarding its desire to restore constitutional order and organize fresh elections within 12 months, the interval being the transitional period.
